he hates the policeman. But that's not what he is trying to make the people believe. No. it's his own dirty self! It's because he doesn't want to be decent.

It is is because he doesn't want to be decent that he hates the preacher that preaches the truth to him. That's all!—nothing else under heaven. You can't get around it.

Now, it was not the headsman's ax that killed John, it was the hatred of old Herodias that killed John the Baptist. She hated John not because he had injured her, but because he made her see her vile heart—John hadn't injured her, the devil had injured her, the hates the hates the injured her, the hates the hates can't do it, no matter now much skill he has, No matter now much ite may want to bestow on you and no matter now much ite may want to bestow on you and no matter now much ite may want to bestow you, it won't let Him. That's all there is to it and at the food on earth won't do you any good if you don't each it.

You can go to hell with Bibbe lying right on the table by you and the plan of salvation revealed before you, if you reject it, God has nothing more to say about it.

In hating John the Baptist, Herodias hated Jeans Christ, which has he was a line; That's all he was—nothing but God's you'ce telling it to her.

Didn't Want ruth.

She would have been just as ready to kill Jesus Christ, whose spirit impelled John of preach the truth. The nan who would kill assus Christ flat as the was to kill the man who proached the truth. The nan who would kill assus Christ flat as quickly, because the spirit of God tells the man to preach the truth.—that's the whole thing it a nutshell.

Now, it is hard to believe that we have the same bitterness in our heartagainst Jesus Christ. We do, when we hate God's law that forgives our sinthat's dead sure! belied down, it is always sin that makes us hate God's law that forgives our sinthat's dead sure! belied down, it is always sin that makes us hate God's law that forgives our sinthat's dead sure! belied down, it is always sin that makes us hate God's law that forgives our sinthat's dead sure! belied down, it is always sin that makes a policeman. Why does he hate a policeman the didn't do him any harm. He stands for the enforcement of the law.

He may make you believe it's the policeman, but it is the fact that that fellow wants to be a criminal and break the law that the policeman and the policeman he hates the policeman be that the policeman is sworn to uphold. That's he reason he hates the policeman to the decent that he hates the proachet to the decent that he hates the policeman was always and the same reason he hates a policeman was always and the proached t

you to keep His commandments in the world.

Jesus Was Hated.

Jesus Christ was hated for the very same reason. He is hated today by those who reject His offer of saivation for the same reason. Did you ever know a bad boy who didn't hate a good boy that was held up for an example to live by?

Love puts you in heaven, hate puts you in hell. There is the difference, Show me a reasonable, intelligent man or woman that would hesitate about the choice. That's all there is to it! Why, if hate should die today, the devil wouldn't be able to get out of the hospital. You destroy hate, and love will give everybody an automobile—sure! It
